Harry's family arrived at the zoo at 09:00. They had to queue 10 minutes to buy tickets and the first animal they went to see were the African elephants. They watched the elephants for 20 minutes before going to see the rhinos in the next enclosure.

After watching the rhinos for 20 minutes they decided to watch the penguins being fed which took 45 minutes.

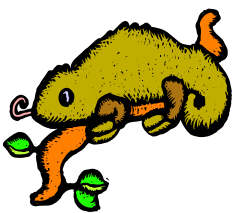

They decided to visit the tigers after the penguin feed and watched them for 40 minutes.

After watching the tigers, it was time for lunch so they found a nice sunny spot to sit and have a picnic. They finished their picnic at 12:30.

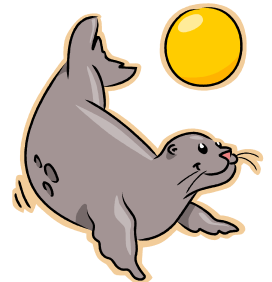

It then took them 15 minutes to find the monkey enclosure where they stayed for 55 minutes before going to the reptile house.

They left the reptile house at 14:10 and took a 5 minute walk to the giraffe enclosure.

After looking at the giraffes for 20 minutes they decided to see the polar bears being fed which finished at 3 o'clock.

They then had a 25 minute break at the zoo café before walking 5 minutes to the seal enclosure.

After 20 minutes, they went to spend the rest of the time at the zoo fair. They spent 1 hour 10 minutes going on the rides before they left to go home.
